

Birmingham Association of REALTORS® Proud to Announce Another GRI Graduate

Birmingham, AL August 27, 2018 – The Birmingham Association of REALTORS® (BAR) has a strong commitment to professionalism in the real estate industry and preparing our members for superior customer service. BAR is pleased and proud to announce that one of its members, Judy Horton, of Ray & Poyner Properties, has recently completed the final course of the Alabama Graduate REALTOR® Institute (GRI).

By successfully completing all the REALTOR® institute courses, a student is awarded the nationally recognized, GRI designation. The GRI consists of 60 hours of real estate instruction including such topics as Working with Buyers, Working with Sellers, Professionalism, Accountability & Development, Real Estate Contracts and Real Estate Technology. The designation is awarded exclusively to REALTORS®, members of the National Association of REALTORS®, who are bound to a code of ethics. Only members of the National Association may call themselves REALTORS®. Less than 15% of all members nationally attain this prestigious designation.

Ms. Horton is a graduate of UAB with a Bachelor of Science in Education for the deaf. She is involved in her community in multiple ways including serving on the Overton Park and Sidewalk Committee and is Past President BWF- Mountain Brook PTA, as well as having served in the past on the Junior League of Birmingham.

The Alabama GRI program is offered throughout the state by the Alabama Association of REALTORS and is approved and certified by the National Association of REALTORS, the nation's largest trade association with 1.2 million members.
